EXPECTATIONS

I am looking for a devout Muslima Sunni woman who comes from an orthodox family. She should be true religious and God-fearing, I am looking to meet someone who is open-minded, patient and has an enthusiasm for life. If she is good at decision making, self-made and very ambitious in life would be appreciated.

Most Important is she should be positive, responsible, loving, caring towards my family and balance the good relationship between both the families.
